CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

The Calling Team for this month is Jesse Moser and Randy Van Hill.

Sunday School and Children & Worship will begin again on January 5.

WHITE GIFT OFFERING: A very big THANK YOU to everyone for their generous support of our missionaries through the White Gift Offering! The offerings collected from all the Sunday School classes plus the offering taken at the Christmas program came to a wonderful total of $2,367.86!!! What a wonderful gift that will be used to further the work of God's Kingdom on earth. God bless you!

First Reformed Church is still looking for a nursery coordinator. If you are interested, please contact Pastor Rob or a consistory member. As of January 5, there will be no one assigned for nursery duty and parents are on their own. Please consider being a part of this important ministry for our church.

JOYS AND CONCERNS

- Jake Dieters had his port removed this past Tuesday. He is doing very well.
- Justin Brower is waiting for test results for his testing this past Tuesday. Q fever is still the diagnosis.
- Denny & Joan Hoogendoorn's grandsons, Jaxson and Lincoln, have RSV but are doing better.
- Gary Klarenbeek's father, Gerrit Klarenbeek, has a form of pulmonary fibrosis and is receiving medication. Keep him in your prayers.
- John Boer had an emergency appendectomy on Christmas morning. The appendix did perforate and he will be in the hospital for five to seven days.
- Ann Rozeboom continues to recover from her hysterectomy surgery as she also developed an infection in her incision. Pray for the antibiotics to be effective.
- Dori Horstman's aunt, Fonda Kooistra, has been moved out of ICU at Sanford and into a regular room. They think she has some form of pneumonia. Pray for comfort.
- Lorraine Van Geest had surgery on Friday to place two stints in the brain after a stroke. Pray for healing.
- Continue to pray for those receiving treatment for cancer – Melissa Moser, Ron Zylstra and others from our families and communities.
