JOYS & CONCERNS

- We extend our sympathies to Ken & Eileen Denekas in the loss of Ken's father, Gerald Denekas. Gerald's funeral service was held Saturday, Feb. 1 at the Silver Creek Reformed Church in German Valley, IL. We also express our sympathies to Brian & Gwen Denekas in the loss of a grandfather. Keep the Denekas family in your prayers.
- We express our sympathies to John & Marcia Boer and Kim & Lisa Van Ginkel in the loss of their sister, Kimberly Gacke. Kimberly is also an aunt to Ross & Cassidy Van Ginkel, Jared Van Ginkel, Mark & Jill Klarenbeek, and Mike & Janette Boer. Keep the Boer and Gacke families in your prayers.
- We extend our sympathies to Shirley Addink. Her sister-in-law, Arta Schoep, from Sioux Center passed away early this week. Also, to Chad & Brent Van Regenmorter and families in the loss of an aunt. The funeral was this past Friday. Keep Shirley and the Van Regenmorter's in your prayers.
- Gary & Aletha Klarenbeek's grandson, Brayson, is dealing with some health issues with low blood platelets. He is doctoring for this. Keep Brayson in your prayers.
- Congratulations to Gary & Aletha Klarenbeek in the birth of a grandson, Dawson Alan Maassen.
- Tristan Spaans injured his knee a week ago. He is waiting for further testing to determine the extent of the injury and if surgery is needed. Keep Tristan in your prayers.
- Arlan Van Voorst was diagnosed with auto immune encephalitis. This is a medical condition that affects the brain. The good news is that it is treatable. Arlan will be in the hospital receiving medication through IV for at least five days and then more tests will be run to see how he is doing. Arlan is a nephew to Vern Koedam, Kenny Koedam and Gloria Bomgaars. Keep Arlan in your prayers.
- John Boer came home from the hospital on Monday. He will meet with a physical therapist to determine the need for rehabilitation in his right arm. John is very thankful as there were very little side effects from the mild stroke. Keep John in your prayers.
- Justin Brower continues to doctor for his symptoms. No new news to pass along. Justin continues to have good and bad days. Keep praying for him.
- Pray for those receiving treatment for cancer – Melissa Moser, Ron Zylstra, Trish Lombard and others from our families and communities.
- Jerry Van't Hul remains on hospice care. Jerry is a brother to Clarence & Marlene Van't Hul.
- Wayne Warner underwent a heart transplant in Florida this past Wednesday. Pray for a good outcome and quick recovery. Wayne is a brother-in-law to John & Marcia Boer and Kim & Lisa Van Ginkel and has many nieces and nephews in our congregation.
- Next week Sunday we will celebrate the Profession of Faith of Issabelle Rozeboom and welcome the Jon & Jenny McKenny family into our congregation.
