CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

The calling team for this month is James Van Ginkel and Randy Van Hill.

This week Sunday, May 10, we invite the Red & Silver Care groups to church. Please follow the guidelines sent out last week. If you have any questions, please contact Pastor Rob.

JOYS AND CONCERNS

- This morning we celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism for Jazlynn Amara Rozeboom, the daughter of Rick & Melissa Rozeboom.
- Rich Bos was hospitalized at Avera in Sioux Falls with dizziness and fluid on his lungs. He has returned home. Keep Rich in your prayers.
- Justin Brower continues his fight against Lyme disease. Continue to pray as healing won't be quickly, but more of a journey for him.
- Pray for those receiving treatment for cancer – Melissa Moser, Trish Lombard, Les Vander Lugt and others.
- Brittany Van Otterloo and her children were in an auto accident a little over a week ago. Everyone is okay, just sore and bruised. Pray for continued healing.
- Marcia Boer had a small stroke last week. Pray for a full recovery.
- Continue to pray for our farmers, business people, those who have been laid-off or under reduced hours, and others who are affected by Covid 19.
- Pray for our healthcare workers as they continue to work the front lines of Covid 19. There are health care workers from our congregation who are involved in the front lines.
