CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

On June 7 First Reformed will open up fully to all who feel comfortable attending church. We will continue to maintain CDC social distancing guidelines until further notice. We will also continue to seat you every other pew and have you exit from the back pew first like we have been doing. There will be no shaking hands, no greeters, no nursery or cookies/coffee or juice until further notice. If you would like to fellowship outside in the parking lot and maintain some social distancing, please feel free to do that. If you feel comfortable and you are healthy, please join us for worship every Sunday. If you have a compromised immune system or other health concerns or you feel unsafe to return, please stay home as we will continue to provide online services for the summer. Pray for our church and congregation as we return to a new normal. If you have any further questions or concerns, please visit with a consistory member or Pastor Rob.

JOYS & CONCERNS

- This morning we recognize our high school, tech school, and college graduates. Congratulations!
- Kendra Van Essen is home and doing well. Keep her in your prayers.
- Gail Harmelink's son, Brent, received some good test results that the melanoma has not spread beyond the area infected. He will have surgery to remove hopefully all of it and then they will determine if further treatment is needed.
- Justin Brower continues to have good and not-so-good days. Pray for this treatment plan to bring healing.
- Melissa Moser underwent tests this past week and the scans were not what they had hoped for. The spots on the liver seem to have grown a little and now there is a cluster of new smaller spots near the larger tumor. There are also a few other new spots. One is on her skull and two on her spine. The one on the spine is a larger one which, if not taken care of, will grow and cause paralysis. Melissa's next step is to get an MRI and begin radiation as soon as they can get a radiologist to overlook the MRI. She will have to start on some chemo after that as well. Again, not what they had hoped but they still trust in God's plan and hopefully that involves some more good years for Melissa and her family. Keep the Moser family in your prayers.
- Pray for those receiving cancer treatment – Melissa Moser, Trish Lombard, Les Vander Lugt and others.
- Continue to pray for our farmers, business people, those who have been laid-off or under reduced hours, and others who are affected by Covid-19.
- Pray for our healthcare workers as they continue to work the front lines of Covid-19. There are health care workers from our congregation who are involved in the front lines.
