Beginning June 7, First Reformed will open up fully to all who feel comfortable attending church. We will continue to maintain CDC social distancing guidelines until further notice. We will also continue to seat you every other pew and have you exit from the back pew first like we have been doing. There will be no shaking hands, no greeters, no nursery or cookies/coffee or juice until further notice. If you would like to fellowship outside in the parking lot and maintain some social distancing, please feel free to do that. If you feel comfortable and you are healthy, please join us for worship every Sunday. If you have a compromised immune system or other health concerns or you feel unsafe to return, please stay home as we will continue to provide online services for the summer. Pray for our church and congregation as we return to a new normal. If you have any further questions or concerns, please visit with a consistory member.

Sunday morning worship services will continue to be posted on the website by 10:30 am at frcinwood.org. Click on the Sermons tab, then choose Video from the dropdown menu.

A link will also be posted to Facebook on the church page, Inwood Iowa First Reformed Church.

As most of you know, Pastor Rob plans to be on sabbatical from June 1 through August 25.

Our student pastor, Rick Rozeboom, will be covering the pulpit along with a few others through the summer. If you have pastoral joys or concerns, please contact the calling team or Rick Rozeboom from June 1 through Aug 25. If you need a prayer chain sent around, please contact Eileen Denekas or Jody Van Regenmorter and they will be happy to do this for you. If you have a joy or concern for the bulletin or other announcements, please contact Bonnie Van Ginkel. All of their contact information is listed below.
