

Conflict between the Church and the Powers of Evil

Rev 12:1-9, 13:1-4, 11-18, 14:1, 6-13

1. Have you ever come across something unexpected in life?
2. In chapter twelve we see the symbolism of a _____; whom represents several figures in the history of the church. (Rev 12)
 - a. _____ - The woman clothed with the sun and moon; meaning worldwide influence.
 - b. Rev 12:2 speaks of _____ in the birth of Jesus, whom Satan would attempt to destroy.
 - c. Rev 12:6 the woman represents the _____ and how it is protected by God until Jesus returns.
3. Sometime before the creation of the earth and humanity this war took place and Satan was _____ out of heaven with one third of the angels. (Rev 12:7-9)
 - a. Satan desired to be _____, not to be a servant of God.
 - b. The bible refers to fallen angels as “_____”.
4. Chapter 13 speaks of two beasts whose attempt is to try and pull you into those places _____ should never go.
 - a. The beast from the sea represents evil world _____. (Rev 13:1-10)
 - I. It also represents evil powers trying to pull people into pagan ways of _____.
 - b. The second beast from the earth represents false philosophies and ideas that try to take over the _____.
 - I. Idea's such as humanism and rationalism – the attitude that “I can run my own life; I _____ need God”
 - II. “_____” meaning fellowship, together or gathered is what the bible teaches.
 - c. The number “666” represents “complete _____” of man.
5. Rev 14:13 speaks of _____ and _____.