

Who Is Coming?

Psalm 2:1-12, Matthew 25:31-34

1. Advent then and now means we commemorate the first coming of Christ; but we also _____ his second coming.
2. We answer the question of “_____ is coming?”
 - a. Who came then? The _____! Luke 2
 - b. Psalm 2 speaks about the _____ the people of God suffered.
 - c. In the first Advent, people were _____ by a Messiah who was born in a humble stable and would suffer a terrible death on a cross.
3. We look _____ as Jesus returns to earth again someday. Matthew 25:31
 - a. What are we really looking forward to in the Advent that is to come?
4. Advent means we look forward with _____ of Jesus arrival.
 - a. For us to live at _____ and to look _____ to His second coming there are some things we need to have in our lives to do this.
 - b. First; we need to have an understanding that we are not _____, we are sinners _____ purely by the grace of God. John 3:16
 - c. Second; we need to understand that a God of judgement is a _____ God. Matthew 25:32-33
5. Advent then and now draws some very different _____.
 - a. Are you looking forward with great _____ and _____?
 - b. People of faith celebrate Advent because of a Savior who came into the world to save _____ like you and me.