

Learning to Love Well; Emotional Maturity Part #2

Matthew 5:9

1. To have _____ relationships with those who hold to different beliefs or ways of life is to see them as "Thou's".
 - a. When we approach others with genuine love; God _____ in the _____ space in a broken relationship.
2. Matthew 5:9 "Blessed are the _____, for they will be called children of God."
 - a. Most of us believe that Jesus calls us to be _____ and _____.
 - b. We pretend what is _____ is right.
 - c. True peace in a relationship will _____ if we pretend what is wrong is right.
3. Jesus _____ the false peace all around him. Mark 11:15-17
 - a. You can't have the true peace of Christ's kingdom with _____ and _____ teachings.
4. Unresolved _____, differences, _____ with others are one of the greatest tensions in believer's lives today.
 - a. As the speaker - talk about your _____ thoughts, _____.
 - b. As the listener - Put your own agenda on _____.
5. Are you a " _____ " when you enter into conflict or have differences with others? Exodus 20:16
 - a. It is very possible you will believe something that is _____. Mark 11:15-17
6. The greatest gift we can give others is to be a community of emotionally healthy _____ who love well.
 - a. Be _____ peacemakers.